Daniels Will Announce at Rodeo Here

ARMY SOUND TRUCK WILL BE HERE TO HELP BROADCAST RESULTS FROM ARENA

Top hand among rodeo announcers of West Texas, Danny Daniels, has been contracted to announce the events at the Hamlin Rodeo next week-nd, officials of the show told The Herald Wednesday. The Borger "ballyhooer" will be here Thursday to help with early arrangements for the four shows, and will be on the job with wisecracks and information at all events at the rodeo grounds.

Daniels has been announcing rodeo shows for a number of years, and Hamlin Rodeo Association leaders feel his presence will add much to interest in the events.

Sound equipment for this year's rodeo will be furnished by the U. S. Army, and will come from an Army base at Amarillo. A huge portable broadcaster with ample speaker facilities are mounted on a big Army truck. The equipment will be used in the parades each day as well as at the rodeo grounds. Army men were here Wednesday arranging letails for bringing the truck here.

President R. S. Johnson and Secretary Holly Toler of the association declare things are shaping up nicely for a fine rodeo this year. That the event is well advertised is proven in reports of intention to attend by scores of rodeo goers of this territory, they say.

Luther T. Marr, arena director, is seeing that finishing touches are put to the arena and other grounds equipment. With a fast-moving show in mind, several changes have been made in chutes at the ground, Marr declares.

Robert Johnson and Tarlton Willingham have agreed to be timekeepers for the events. Confirmation of judges was expected by week-end.

Several contestants had sent in their entrance fees first of the week, Secretary Toler stated. Tough competition for the more than $1,000 in

CELOTEX MANAGER

John O. Lewis, above, last week was made manager of the Hamlin division of the Celotex Corporation, a position he has held since November. Coming to Hamlin in 1941 as board plant superintendent, Lewis has had wide experience in production and plant management.

POST OFFICE TO BE CLOSED SATURDAY AFTERNOON AGAIN

Beginning Saturday of this week the Hamlin post office will discontinue Saturday afternoon post office window service, Perry Sparks, postmaster announced first of the week.

The new closing comes as a directive from the Post Office Department. It is part of an economy move on the part of the department to keep post offices on a paying basis.

Hamlin post office had been closing at 1:00 o'clock Saturday afternoons before the war, Sparks states. The additional service was provided about two years ago to make the handling of mail for men in the armed services on a longer week basis.

Saturday afternoon service has been possible, Sparks says, only by paying of overtime to clerks in the office. Under the new program no overtime will be paid. The four office clerks work 40 hourrs per week on a straight time basis. It has been costing the department about $50 per week to maintain the Saturday afternoon service, Sparks points out.

Softball League to Be Organized at Plainview

A softball league for teams of this area will be organized at Plainview Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock, it was announced Wednesday by Jesse R. Bonds, one of the sparkplugs of the softball team at Plainview, 12 miles southeast of Hamlin.

Managers of teams of this territory are invited to attend the session, when member teams will be organized and schedules worked out.

Bonds says the Plainview softball field is being lighted this week and will be ready by Saturday night.

Two Wells at Neinda Seen By Snowden

ACREAGE FOR IRON MOUNTAIN OIL COMPANY NORTH OF HAMLIN COMPLETED

Field Superintendent Maddox of the Snowden Oil Company of Dallas reported Wednesday while he was in Hamlin that his company plans to drill two more wells in the Neinda section on their holdings of about 2,000 acres. At least one of the wells will be started within 10 days, Maddox declared.

Snowden has already completed a well on the King block in the Neinda section. The new tests will be on the R. R. Carroll and Mrs. L. F. Young tracts.

Representatives of the Iron Mountain Oil Company of Oklahoma City in Hamlin report this week that the acreage on the 19,500-acre tract nine miles northeast of Hamlin has been completed, on which new wildcat operations are slated to start as soon as casing is available. Harold G. Neeley, on of the owners, says that drilling equipment will be moved from another site in the Hamlin area. Casing is expected to be delivered any day.

Neeley interests are at work on a well in the Carlton community, south of Hamlin.

Further word on a project to drill two wells south and east of Hamlin was not available to The Herald this week.

Leasing continues to be active in the entire Hamlin territory. Proven regions continue to bring up to $7.50 per acre, local lease blockers report, while wildcat areas find ready buyers for a minimum of $1 per acre.

Neinda 4-H Club Boys Visit Holloway Stock

Neinda 4H Club boys are doing outstanding work, according to H. C. Stanley, county agent, who says the group of boys is one of the most progressive in this section.

Recently Stanley accompanied the Southwest Jones County group on an inspection tour of the Kenneth Holloway stock. The boys saw the Jersey herd handled by Kenneth, including the registered Jersey heifer he won last fall in the Sears contests. They also looked in on his prize Poland China gilt and a new litter of nine pigs, a club project of the Neinda club boy.

Don Gregory is president and Joe Vick White is vice president of the 10-member Neinda 4-H Club.

Chunk McCurdy Made Air License Inspector

R. W. (Chunk) McCurdy, formerly of Hamlin but now of Abilene, has just been appointed inspector for private licensers by the Civil Aeronautics Association. Chunk is associated with the Abilene Flying Service and is doing civilian instructing.

During the war McCurdy was instructor for the Army Air Forces, having been stationed at Stamford.

Early Fruit Trees Look Good with Young Crop

Fruit tree owners still haven't uncrossed their fingers while admiring the young fruit crop on their trees in the Hamlin raea, despite the fact the almost-sure sign of frost danger has been heralded—the budding of mesquite trees.

One of the biggest crops of apricots in the history of West Texas is hanging on the trees, and early peaches, plums and pears have put on young fruit.

However, folks haven't forgotten the curve thrown this them last year about April 10 by Jack Frost after fruit trees were loaded.

EXPANSION PLANS AT LABOR CAMP TO BE STARTED SOON

Another building that will provide more housing for the Hamlin transient labor camp will be constructed during the summer before its expanded facilities are needed when the harvest season begins.

This is advice coming to The Herald from Tate May and O. D. Roland of the Chamber of Commerce committee for the camp.

In cooperation with H. C. Stanley Jr., Jones County agent, who was here last week-end conferring with Hamlin officials, local committeemen are working to make the transient camp ample for laborers needed in the Hamlin territory.

Transients, mostly Mexicans, last harvest season crowded and overtaxed the quarters. Besides housing, sanitary and recreational facilities are provided at the camp.

Other improvements planned at the labor center will be a cafe to provide ready-cooked foods to those who desire them.

New road signs, painted in Spanish, will direct laborers to the camp.

Hamlin's labor center was the largest in the county last year. Anson and Stamford are planning expansions for their labor camps, Stanley reports.

Safety Demonstration Slated Tuesday by Shell

The public is invited to attend a safety demonstration next Tuesday evening, April 9, by the Shell Pipeline Company. The session will get underway at 7:30 o'clock at the high school building in Hamlin.

Safety engineers of the Bureau of Mines will participate in the demonstration, when gas explosion dangers will be emphasized.

Pair Returns From Old Mexico with Fish Tales

They not only are telling big fish stories but they brought back the proof of big catches last week at Don Martini Lake, Old Mexico. On their return Monday from our southern neighbor country Art Carmichael and Teddy Russell are telling about their trip.

Half a hundred bass, weighing two pounds and more were brought back from the chili country by the anglers. Some good cases of suntan are another proof of the trip.

Holly Toler Named Mayor in City Vote

CULBERTSON MADE COUNTY CHAIRMAN FOR LEGION DRIVE

Joe Culbertson of Hamlin, commander of Keefer-Patterson Post of the American Legion, was named last week as Jones County chairman of the campaign to raise $15,000,000 toward the national Americanism endowment fund.

Jones County's quota is $1,098.

A national trust established by the American Legion, the Americanism fund is designed to carry on a broad educational program combatting all subversive "isms" in conflict with the principles of the United States constitution. President Truman is honorary national chairman, and Governor Coke R. Stevenson of Texas is national vice chairman. Chairman of the campaign to raise Texas' quota of $450,000 is Fred F. Florence president of the Republic National Bank of Dallas.

6:30 p. m.—Nazarene Young People's Service, Rev. Elbert Labenske, chairman.

Cotton Insurance Forms Ready for Area Raisers

J. W. Griffith, administrative officer of the Jones County ACA, has announced that the 1946 cotton listing sheets have been returned from the state office and farmers may now make application for cotton insurance.

All producers who are interested in insuring their 1946 cotton crop are urged to contact the ACA office in Anson before April 10.

L. H. McBRIDE, B. M. BRUNDAGE AND G. R. BENNETT NAMED TO ALDERMEN PLACES

Four new faces will be seen behind council tables when Hamlin's new City Council convenes for its next session April 16. Included in the group will be a new mayor and three aldermen.

The four new members of the official family were named in Tuesday's city election that brought out only an average vote when 195 citizens went to the polls.

Holly Toler, Hamlin rancher was named mayor to succeed Joe Culbertson, who has held the office for 12 years. Toler received 179 votes, and seven voters wrote in the name of Culbertson.

Names of seven candidates were on the city ticket as candidates for aldermen. The three leaders, who will be declared winners in official canvass of votes, were L. H. McBride, B. M. Brundage and G. R. Bennett.

The three new aldermen will succeed Fed Britton, Tom Holman and Guy Wilson. Hold-over aldermen, whose terms expire next year, are Ivy R. Witt and O. D. Roland.

McBride received 125 votes, Brundage 107, Bennett 103, H. O. Carter 78, John D. Ferguson 65, Starr Inzer 61, and W. L. Cash 23.

Big Catches Reported From Lakes Near City

Fishing is good in the Hamlin lakes these days. This is the conclusion of The Herald publisher if we are to believe the stories coming our way. Ordinarily we've got to taste the fish before we print the tales, but we'll give this report on credit.

Several of our angles have reported snagging bass at Lake Moore, two miles west of Hamlin, weighing five pounds or more. Mrs. Jesse Scott is reported to have landed the year's biggest so far—a six pounder caught last week.

Three Hamlin Veterans Enrolled at Texas Tech

Of the more than 1,000 veterans enrolled in Texas Technological College at Lubbock this semester, the following three are from Hamlin:

George Russell Dean, son of Mrs. R. S. Dean, freshman agriculture major; Robert A. Dean, son of Mrs. R. S. Dean, sophomore geology major; and Elmer Feagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Feagan, sophomore accounting major.

Robert Dean attended Tech in 1943 before entering the armed forces.

Home Agent Gives Furniture Stain Pointers

White spots on varnished furniture may be caused by standing water, hot dishes or alcohol, says Hannah Nabors, home demonstration agent of Jones County. There are ways for removing both slight and severe white spots, and Miss Nabors gives the following suggestions to homemakers:

If the spots are slight, they may be removed simply by rubbing with camphorated oil or oil of peppermint. Or they may disappear when the surface of the furniture is washed with a mixture of one quart of warm water, three tablespoons of boiled linseed oil and one tablespoon of turpentine; then dried with a soft dry cloth, and rubbed with furniture polish.

For more severe white spots—those that are old or very deep—an abrasive may be needed as well as oil, says Miss Nabors. One mixture that may be used for removing them is salt and salad oil. Dip the finger in oil, then in salt, and rub. Repeat until the spot disappears. They dry and polish. Or use a paste made of powdered pumice and linseed oil, and rub over the spot with the finger or soft cloth until the spot disappears. If so much rubbing is required that it removes the surface, the rubbed area may need refinishing, Miss Nabors concludes.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilson, who have been visiting Mrs. M. Y. Wilson, have returned to their home at Dallas.

Mrs. A. S. McKneely of Longview is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. R. Tegart, at Hamlin.

Mrs. Gus Travis is at Wichita Falls with her mother, Mrs. Tom Evans, who is ill in the Clinic Hospital.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS!

Gossip over a back fence is everybody's business! . . . And, in quite another way, your electric company, too, is everybody's business!

It belongs to you—to the man next door and the woman across the street—to the people who rub shoulders with you in shops and trains and buses.

All types and kinds of folks are on our stockholder list—housewives, farmers, merchants, teachers, doctors, nurses. They're the direct owners.

And there are countless indirect owners. Even if you don't own a share of our stock yourself, you probably have a stake in this company through your life insurance policy or savings account.

Why? Because banks and insurance companies—who handle your savings—must invest those funds wisely. Next to War Bonds, one of their largest investments is public utility securities. They know that sound business management has made cheap, dependable electric power a basic part of the American way of life.

So, whether you realize it or not—your electric light and power company is not just our business—it's your business.

W. K. Horn Releases Formal Announcement For Assessor-Collector

To the Voters of Jones County:

It is a privilege indeed to live in a country where everyone has the right of franchise and may so cast their ballot unmolested and unafraid, and it is to you I come asking that in the choice you may make for your tax assessor and collector of Jones County, after due consideration and investigation, you shall find me worthy of such a trust and see fit to support me. I want to assure you in advance that to the very best of my ability it shall be my desire not to disappoint you in the least.

It may be impossible, and likely will, to see every voter in the county personally, which I should like to do—and in case I fail to see you, would your accept this as an expression of my deep appreciation of your vote as well as influence?

I do not feel the people of this county owe me anything. I am the debtor, but as you are to bestow upon someone the privilege of this office, may I sincerely ask you to give me consideration, and if you find from your investigation that you could safely betsow upon me this honor and responsibility, I shall ever be grateful to you—and trust you shall not in the future have any reason to regret the same.

Sincerely yours—W. K. Horn,

FREE CLASSING TO BE AVAILABLE FOR COTTON GROWERS

Cotton raisers of the Hamlin area are advised that free cotton classification and market news service as provided under the Smith-Doxey Act will again be available to organized groups. This is the advice of John L. McCollum, Southwest area cotton branch manager of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Production and Maketing Administration at Dallas.

Since Jones County for the most part lies east of the 100th meridian, dividing line for time for filing applications, county farmers must file their applications for the service by July 1. Farmers in Fisher County have until July 15 to file.

Instructions and application blanks may be obtained from county agricutural agents or from PMA branch cotton offices at Abilene, Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Galveston and Lubbock.

Applications will be processed and approved by a committee headed by F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, and the classification and market news service will be provided by PMA. Since about 15 days are reguired to process applications after they are received, early filing by groups well in advance is required. Late applications, however, will be accepted until August 1 from the East Texas area and until August 15 from West Texas.

About 45 per cent of the 1945-46 cotton crop from Texas was classed under the Smith-Doxey program for 1,055 groups made up of 95,773 farmers who planted 4,844,658 acres Mr. McCollum said. This compares with 55 groups, 1,754 farmers and 89,433 acres during 1938, the first season the service became available.

He Was Persistent.

"You ought to feel highly honored, young man," said the big business man to the life insurance agent. "Do you know that today I have refused to see seven insurance men?"

"I know," replied the agent. "I'm them."

AUSTRIA TRYING FOR COMEBACK TO OLD GLORY, CHARLES BROWN TELLS LIONS

After-the-war conditions in Austria are bad from most viewpoints, declared Charles Brown of Hamlin, recently returned from several months in Vienna as a member of the American occupation army in the Austrian capital. Brown spoke at the Hamlin Lions Club Tuesday noon at the Morgan Hotel.

"Vienna, one of the two European big cities occupied by the four big powers of Britain, Russia, France and the United States, still reflects much war damage. Some cathedrals, parliament buildings and state houses still remain intact, but rail centers and much of the residential sectors have been destroyed," Brown told his hearers.

"We used to think of Vienna as a place of beauty, gaiety and revelry, but it has lost most of this glamour as a result of the war. The Austrian capital is having a hard time coming back to its former place in the world of art and music, and I daresay it will never regain its former glory."

Brown said food, clothing and other shortages were creating terrible black markets. While cigarettes, for example, were selling in U. S. post exchanges for 50 cents per carton black market operators were selling to civilians for $50 to $75 per carton.. In fact, Brown declared, tobacco was the medium of exchange.

The Hamlin ex-soldier stated that Russians were still looting the country of food, furniture, vehicles and factory equipment, recognizing no respect for individual ownership. These lootings are being carried back to Russia, he told.

Most Austrians resent the presence of occupation forces, but since the Russians are there primarily, the average Austrian feels safer with the U. S. soldiers around. This feeling was reflected in the recent defeat in election of Communist candidates sponsored by the Russian authorities.

New members, Rev. John H. Osteen, new pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Fred B. Moore Jr., were presented club pins by Gordon Bennett.

Club guests Tuesday were John Spencer of Waco, John F. Green Jr., Teddy Russell and Lester Morton.

A nominating committee to select candidates for new officers for the Lions Club year beginning July 1 was named by President Art Carmichael to include Past Presidents A. Spencer, Haskell Carter and L. H. McBride. The committee will report its recommendations at the next meeting.

George Kinney Returns From 40 Months' Duty

Mrs. George Kinney, the former Doris Pope, met her husband, Sergeant George Kinney, in Fort Worth, where the ex-soldier landed by plane from Fort McPherson, Georgia, early Monday morning.

Kinney had served in the army 40 months, with 13 months of the time in England. He was an X-ray technician. Mrs. Kinney made her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Pope, part of the time her husband was away. They will again make their home in Stamford, where Mr. Kinney is a member of the Kinney Funeral Home.

MARTIN DISCUSSES DRUNKEN DRIVING FOR ROTARY CLUB

Drunken driving is one of the present day's greatest dangers to human life, Attorney W. F. Martin Jr. told members fo the Rotary Club Wednesday noon at the Morgan Hotel. The young Hamlin man pointed out that stringent corrective measures are needed—and then enforced—if good citizens value the lives of our citizenry.

Among guests at the Rotary meeting were Major Forest Greenway of Hamlin, who has recently returned from many months' duty with the Air Transport Command in Hawaii. Entering the service in 1942, Major Greenway received his early training in Florida. Other guests were S. J. Treadaway, district engineer of the Texas Highway Department at Abilene, and Frank Pruitt, circulation manager of The Abilene Reporter-News. They were making up their Rotary attendance.

Officials of the club state that at least four members will attend the district convention of Rotary at Amarillo April 28, 29 and 30. Tom Teague, newly elected president, will head the delegation.

Postal Receipts $6,500 For 1946 First Quarter

Business at the Hamlin post office is holding up mighty well despite the fact that hundreds of boys who were in the armed service have returned home, declares Postmaster Perry Sparks. Mail to and from the service men formerly constituted a major portion of the postage business at this and other offices all over the country.

Receipts of $6,500 for the first quarter of 1946 reflect only a 10 per cent decrease under receipts for the same period last year, Sparks says.

POT-SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

BY GEO DARDEN

Back in Texas once again after an enjoyable trip through five states and many large cities. One lady asks, "Is Chicago a big town?" Yes, says I—it's twice as big as McCaulley. Anyway, we are glad to be back where the mesquite trees cover the good earth and the mocking birds take the place of alarm clocks; where the old rooster crows for daylight; and folks are folks.

About the most amusing thing to listen to is a crowd of soldiers and sailors gathered around the depots in large cities going every direction and from every state in the union. All think their states are tops and the other states very insignificant. A soldier will ask who won the war, and like a bolt out of a clear sky a soldier will shout "Texas." Another will ask, "Didn't Texas have any help?" The soldier answers: "Well, Oklahoma did help a little."

Dan Hardy Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pope, is back from the war with a discharge. Dan is a picture of health, and is glad to be back home.

The Galloway twins, Annie and Fannie, are here from Fort Worth visiting their sister, Mrs. Oliver Lee, and family.

Don't forget to vote at the trustee election April 6. If you paid your poll tax it is of vital importance that you vote in all elections. Your child's welfare is about the most important thing we know anything about.

The clink of boots and spurs and the tramping of horses' feet will be music to the ears of Texas rodeo fans when Hamlin pulls her big rodeo April 12 and 13. One of the very important things at a rodeo is a snappy announcer and a good loud speaking system. When the fans go away from a rodeo and complain about the loud speaking system it's bad business for the next show.

Kenneth Wayne Decker is home with a discharge from Uncle Sam's Navy.

Bobby George Maberry and Bud Lee left several days ago for Army training camps. Good luck, fellows!

McCaulley swept honors in the district 18-B tennis tournament. The results: Junior boys' singles, Charlie Lee of McCaulley beat W. A. Hawkins of Sylvester, 6-0 and 6-1; junior boys' doubles, James Jennings and Paul Waldrop of McCaulley defeated Scott Swindall and Billy Wayne Reed of Sylvester, 6-0 and 6-1; in senior boys' doubles Gerald Berry and Willard Gibson of McCaulley defeated Bright Newhouse and Robert Montgomery of Sylvester, 6-0 and 6-2; in senior girls' doubles Patsy Reed and Martha Hicks of McCaulley defeated Corrin Roquemore and Merle Fields of Sylvester, 6 0 and 6-2; in junior girls' doubles Margaret Darden and Betty Faye Lawliss of McCaulley downed Iva May Whitney and Mary Grace Herron of Sylvester, 6-0 and 6-0; in junior girls' singles Peggy Jane Humphries of McCaulley defeated Joan Waldrop of Sylvester, 6-0 and 6-0; in the senior boys' singles Johnny Waldrop of McCaulley won by default from Harold Gene Red of Sylvester.

Russell Kidd of McCaulley won second place in the shotput at the Hobbs track meet. Still proud of our McCaulley kids and anxious to get started on the new gymnasium.

Mrs. Rauhut of Dublin, mother of Mrs. Cecil Woods, visited Mr. and Mrs. Woods in this community last week.

Pat Rector spent last week-end at Clyde visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Beard.

Visiting in the Frank Jackson home last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Don Houghton and Frank Jackson Jr. of Fort Worth.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Virgil Steele is home and recovering from a recent operation at the Rotan Hospital.

Mrs. George Martin has been undergoing treatment in a Rotan hospital.

Mary Ann McCollum, a student at McMurry College, Abilene, was a week-end visitor in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi McCollum.

McCaulley's negro hotel, the Tin Shack, is being partly torn down to make room for the new Hamlin-McCaulley highway. The highway would have passed right through the west part of the Tin Shack had it not been removed.

Jim Fancher popped off the other day and sold his John Deere tractor to an Arkansas buyer. Jim had begun to think he wasn't going to get another but we understand that he has now purchased a John Deere H from Will Madden.

It's plenty dry weather in these parts. Rain is badly needed within the next few days for a wheat crop.

Politicians have begun to venture out for hand-shaking and back-slapping with the natives. Outside appearance makes you want to vote for the whole bunch. Our advice to whipper-snappers who campaign on horseback is to hibernate before they get their feet wet.

Mr. and Mrrs. H. W. Madden of Neinda visited her mother, Mrs. John Crowley, and family last Sunday.

Mrs. Sybil Stevenson of McCaulley enrolled at Scoggin Beauty School at Abilene Monday.

McCaulley Baptist Church is endeavoring to get 100 folks in Sunday School next Sunday. Won't you attend?

Thanks to Willie Maberry and to Annie Galloway of Fort Worth for a year's subscription to The Herald.

Mildred Mason is here from Chicago—that is, she is the former Miss Mason. We hear she is married now and her husband is with her, but as yet the writer hasn't met him—so maybe next week we will know more. Anyway, all the folks know Mildred. They are visiting her mother, Mrs. Flora Mason, a sister, Gertie, and brother, Ed.

Well, folks, as politics warms up so will the writer. This week the ole boy is road foundered and not in the humor to do much commenting. See you next week.

They're Really Soused.

Pa—"Well, son, how are your marks?"

Son—"They're under water."

Pa—"What do you mean 'under water'?"

Son—"Below 'C' level."

Legislation to Extend Price Control Another Year Being Studied

Contemplation of another year of price control was in the minds of Hamlin area people this week when it was learned that Chairman Spence of the House banking committee has introduced legislation at Washington to extend the price contro' and war-time stabilization laws for a year beyond June 30. Hearing on the measure was started by that committee early in February.

The Spence bill provides for continuing subsidy payments by the Commodity Credit Corporation for operations with respect to the dairy production payment program, other non-crop programs including feed-wheat, the 1946 crop program, and sheep raising and lamb feeding.

It also authorizes fund for the RFC to continue subsidy payments on meat. butter and flour.
